Practicing the Faith

By The Rev. Dr. Andrew MacBeth, Interim Rector

I understand that bishops, rectors, and vestries may want to know “how many new members did we get last year?” To the extent that this is a concern about effective evangelism, I am with them. But what I hear from the people who come through our doors these days is not an interest in “How do I join?” as it might have been in the 1950s. And, for most, it is not a request for a theological punch list about where we stand on the ten top issues of the day. Rather they are asking, “What do you DO?” and wondering if we have a way of life to offer that might be nourishing for them.

So, if you were to write the list of Christ Church’s “Essential Practices”, what would they be?

- We are people who worship...every week? Now and then? When?
- We are people who pray...daily? For our friends? For the whole parish prayer list?
- We are people who give our time... to at least one charity? When someone asks? How?
- We are people who give away our money... What percentage of it? To what groups?
- We are people who never stop questioning and learning...and right now we are learning about...what?
- What else?

It’s still great to teach our rich Anglican history (Witness the excellent class Fr. David is currently teaching called “Episcopal Identity”!), but remember that our newcomers are asking not “What do you think?”, but “What do you DO?” What are some ways of practicing the faith we can share with them?

The Fifth Sunday After Epiphany

THE LESSONS

Isaiah 40:21-31

Have you not known? Have you not heard? Has it not been told you from the beginning? Have you not understood from the foundations of the earth? It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers; who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them like a tent to live in; who brings princes to naught, and makes the rulers of the earth as nothing. Scarcely are they planted, scarcely sown, scarcely has their stem taken root in the earth, when he blows upon them, and they wither, and the tempest carries them off like stubble. To whom then will you compare me, or who is my equal? says the Holy One. Lift up your eyes on high and see: Who created these? He who brings out their host and numbers them, calling them all by name; because he is great in strength, mighty in power, not one is missing. Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, "My way is hidden from the LORD, and my right is disregarded by my God"? Have you not known? Have you not heard? The LORD is the everlasting God, the Creator of the ends of the earth. He does not faint or grow weary; his understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the faint, and strengthens the powerless. Even youths will faint and be weary, and the young will fall exhausted; but those who wait for the LORD shall renew their strength, they shall mount up with wings like eagles, they shall run and not be weary, they shall walk and not faint.

Psalm 147:1-12, 21c

- 1 Hallelujah! How good it is to sing praises to our God! *
how pleasant it is to honor him with praise!
- 2 The LORD rebuilds Jerusalem; *
he gathers the exiles of Israel.
- 3 He heals the brokenhearted *
and binds up their wounds.
- 4 He counts the number of the stars *
and calls them all by their names.
- 5 Great is our LORD and mighty in power; *
there is no limit to his wisdom.
- 6 The LORD lifts up the lowly, *
but casts the wicked to the ground.
- 7 Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving; *
make music to our God upon the harp.
- 8 He covers the heavens with clouds *
and prepares rain for the earth;

- 9 He makes grass to grow upon the mountains *
and green plants to serve mankind.
- 10 He provides food for flocks and herds *
and for the young ravens when they cry.
- 11 He is not impressed by the might of a horse; *
he has no pleasure in the strength of a man;
- 12 But the LORD has pleasure in those who fear him, *
in those who await his gracious favor. Hallelujah!

1 Corinthians 9:16-23

If I proclaim the gospel, this gives me no ground for boasting, for an obligation is laid on me, and woe to me if I do not proclaim the gospel! For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward; but if not of my own will, I am entrusted with a commission. What then is my reward? Just this: that in my proclamation I may make the gospel free of charge, so as not to make full use of my rights in the gospel. For though I am free with respect to all, I have made myself a slave to all, so that I might win more of them. To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, that I might by all means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings.

Mark 1:29-39

Jesus left the synagogue at Capernaum, and entered the house of Simon and Andrew, with James and John. Now Simon's mother-in-law was in bed with a fever, and they told him about her at once. He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up. Then the fever left her, and she began to serve them. That evening, at sundown, they brought to him all who were sick or possessed with demons. And the whole city was gathered around the door. And he cured many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons; and he would not permit the demons to speak, because they knew him. In the morning, while it was still very dark, he got up and went out to a deserted place, and there he prayed. And Simon and his companions hunted for him. When they found him, they said to him, "Everyone is searching for you." He answered, "Let us go on to the neighboring towns, so that I may proclaim the message there also; for that is what I came out to do." And he went throughout Galilee, proclaiming the message in their synagogues and casting out demons.

Christ Church Grosse Pointe Interview Committee Prayer

Almighty God, we thank you for your steadfast presence with us as we seek a faithful Rector to lead Christ Church Grosse Pointe. Guide the deliberations of the Interview Committee that their ears will be open to hear your voice and to listen to one another. Open their eyes to see the path ahead with clarity and discernment and to follow you in all things. Open their hearts to the truth of your will for this congregation. Help them to put aside all selfish desires and grant them energy for the journey, patience with the process, and courage in decision making. Send your Holy Spirit into their midst to bless and strengthen them and to call the shepherd priest that you have prepared for Christ Church. In the name of Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.
