I. Opening Prayer

Peg Beadle said the opening prayer.

II. Parishioners' Comments

III. Opening Matters (the tape recorder malfunctioned and Kay was not present to take notes)

Announcements:

Wardens' Comments:

Pastoral Concerns:

Correspondence: No discussion.

IV. Approval of the Minutes for March 15, 2010

The minutes were approved as circulated.

V. New Business

Next Steps in Redevelopment into Growth Pattern: This document was sent in an email for vestry review.

The Vestry of Christ Church Grosse Pointe approved the Redevelopment Goals. It was approved by all members present.

Brad, the wardens, Chris Harrison and staff plan to meet to discuss how to roll out the redevelopment goals and communicate them to the parish.

VI. Old Business

Treasurer's Report: Jean Redfield reviewed the Treasurer's Report that was distributed at the meeting.

Director of Children, Youth and Family Ministry: No discussion.

VII. Parish Ministry Reports

Parish Liturgy and Worship: Numbers during Holy Week were up a bit. Easter weekend went well; however, our numbers were down some because many of our regulars were out of town.

Parish Resources: David McCoy reported for Christ Church First.

- To date CCF has raised $976,000.
- We are minus $24,000 of the one million dollar mark.

- David is hopeful that CC will go over one million dollars once CCF members call to follow up with those who have not pledged.

VIII. General Comments

Please take note of the upcoming events at the bottom of the agenda.

IX. Closing Prayer

Libby Candler said the closing prayer.

X. Executive Session

An executive session did not convene.

Respectfully submitted,

Kay Yntema-Gruner
Recording Secretary
